Film and TV Screening Consent Agreement

Statement of Purpose
The Copyright Act 1968 governs the screening, copying and communicating of film, television and radio programs by schools.

Schools are entitled to:
- Play films, TV and radio programs in the classroom as part of a course of instruction.
- Copy programs screened on television or radio for screening in the classroom.

Lawful screening guidelines
Teachers have authority to periodically play films, television or radio programs in the classroom as part of a course of instruction.

Due to their age, primary school children would only be shown films of the following classifications:
- E – Exempt Very specific types of educational material containing nothing that could lead to an M rating or higher.
- G – General The content is very mild in impact.
- PG – Parental guidance recommended The content is mild in impact.

Furthermore, the school purchases an annual licence which grants permission to show movies purely for enjoyment purposes, such as during coach trips or wet lunchtimes.

Please sign and return to the class teacher.

I give permission for my child ______________________________________ of class ____________ to view programs classified as PG (Parental guidance recommended) under the direct supervision of teachers, in relation to a course of instruction.

This permission will remain in force for the duration of my child’s enrolment or until I advise in writing of any change.
